

CARPENTER IS NOW AFTER FRED BLAKE

Commandant of Powhatan Guards
Writes Judge Portlock About
"Labor Agent."

"SIMPLY BUNCOING PEOPLE"

So Declares Head of Exposition
Police in Formal Complaint to Circuit Judge.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
NORFOLK, VA., July 17.—Fred H. Blake, who recently, before Justice Crutcher, in Richmond, was forced to return money to those from whom he had received it on promise to cure them of various ailments, is being dealt with by Captain Henry W. Carpenter, commandant of the Exposition Powhatan Guard, and Norfolk county officers. Blake has been operating at Pine Beach, just outside the Exposition grounds, in the name of the Jamestown Employment agency, and many complaints have been lodged against him.

This agency, through Blake, or more recently through a "Mr. Murphy," advertised for men to fill positions in and around the Exposition grounds, usually requiring no special training or experience. Two dollars is required as a cash payment when the application is made, in exchange for which a receipt and contract are given, the agency agreeing to direct the applicant "within fifteen days" to any position on its list, and to reimburse him for the cost of the contract. Two dollars is required as a cash payment when the application is made, in exchange for which a receipt and contract are given, the agency agreeing to direct the applicant "within fifteen days" to any position on its list, and to reimburse him for the cost of the contract.

Most of them cannot afford the expense of waiting for the fifteen days before the fifteen days' provision expires.

"Crying Evil."
Captain Carpenter has addressed a strong letter to Judge Portlock, of the Norfolk County Circuit Court, on the subject of Blake's operations, saying in part:

"I consider it my duty to call to your attention the fact that one H. Blake, who has solicited employment agency and a license for conducting same, is not conducting his business in a legitimate way, but is using his license as an employment agency for the purpose of obtaining money under false pretenses. Repeated complaints have been made against this man and he has been on several occasions arrested on warrants sworn out by persons who have paid him money and received absolutely no return therefrom.

"His business is conducted in such a way here as to become a crying evil, and it is well known in this neighborhood that he is simply buncoing those persons who go to him for employment."

WINCHESTER WEDDINGS.

Five Couples Married There Within Two Days.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
WINCHESTER, VA., July 17.—Miss Minnie Anderson, daughter of Mr. J. W. Anderson, of this city, was married to Mr. Frank Stump, a well-known merchant of East Radford, Va., to-day. Rev. J. Horace Lacy, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, officiated. Mr. and Mrs. Stump will reside in East Radford after their bridal tour north.

Rev. J. C. S. Myers, a well-known minister of the United Brethren Church, of Augusta county, Va., and Miss Maggie Leona Larick, daughter of Mr. James W. Larick, were married at the Presbyterian Church at Charlottesville, to-day. Rev. W. E. Graves, of Martinsburg, W. Va., presiding elder, officiated.

Rev. I. W. H. Beale, pastor of Market Street M. E. Church, established a record for marriages here last evening, by marrying three couples in a few hours. The happy parties were Charles W. Light and Miss Pearl Clark, James Arthur Anderson, of Hampshire county, and Miss Fannie B. Clevenger; Mr. John Cuppett, of Uniontown, Pa., and Miss Maude Bernice Hammock, of Reliance.

The Badge of Honesty

Is on every wrapper of Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery because a full list of the ingredients composing it is printed there in plain English. Forty years of experience has proven its superior worth as a blood purifier and invigorating tonic for the cure of stomach disorders and all liver ills. It builds up the run-down system as no other tonic can in which alcohol is used. The active medicinal principles of native roots such as Golden Seal and Queen's root, Stone and Mandrake root, Bloodroot and Black Cherrybark are extracted and preserved by the use of chemically pure, triple-refined glycerine. Send to Dr. R. V. Pierce at Buffalo, N. Y., for free booklet which quotes extracts from well-recognized medical authorities such as Drs. Bartholow, King, Scudder, Coe, Ellingwood and a host of others showing that these roots can be depended upon for their curative action in all weak states of the stomach, accompanied by indigestion or dyspepsia, as well as in all bilious or liver complaints and in all wasting diseases where there is loss of flesh and gradual running down of the strength and system.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" makes rich, pure blood and so invigorates and regulates the stomach, liver and bowels, and through them the whole system. Thus all skin affections, blotches, pimples and eruptions as well as scrofulous swellings and old open running sores or ulcers are cured and healed. In treating old running sores, or ulcers, it is well to insure their healing to apply to them Dr. Pierce's All-Healing Salve. If your druggist don't happen to have this Salve in stock, send fifty-four cents in postage stamps to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., and a large box of the "All-Healing Salve" will reach you by return post.

You can't afford to accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this non-alcoholic, medicinal or known compound, not even though the urgent dealer may thereby make a little bigger profit.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. Sugar-coated, tiny granules, easy to take as candy.

JUDGE HUTTON DECIDES FOR DRYS

Considers Petition of Wets in Charlottesville and Throws
Case Out of Court.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., July 17.—In the Corporation Court to-day, Judge Frank B. Hutton, of Abingdon, delivered his opinion in the contest over the local option election, held here June 4th, quashing the complaint filed by the liquor men on the ground that the petition was not filed within ten days as required by law, that the notice had not been published in the manner prescribed by the statute, and that the further fact that the petition itself did not state any sufficient reason why the result of the election should be overturned. Assuming the truth of all the statements made in the complaint, there was no intimation of any fraud or unfairness in the election. The election resulted in a majority for the "drys."

The saloons must close September 4th.

DOCTORS MEET.

Southwest Virginia Association Holding
Twelfth Session at Bristol.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
BRISTOL, VA., July 17.—The Southwest Virginia Medical Association convened in its twelfth semi-annual session at Marion to-day, with a large attendance of physicians in attendance.

Dr. L. G. Pedigo, of Roanoke, president of the association, is presiding. Papers were read to-day by Dr. Pedigo, Dr. C. T. St. Clair, of Tazewell; Dr. M. O. Burke, of Honaker, and others. Prominent surgeons and specialists from the cities are in attendance. The meeting will continue until to-morrow evening.

Will Lose Sight of Eye.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
FREDERICKSBURG, VA., July 17.—J. T. Minor, Jr., son of County Treasurer J. T. Minor, of King George county, met with an accident by which he was struck in the eye with a small stick, inflicting a painful and serious injury.

Washington by his father, where the doctor, after examination, stated that the eye could be saved, but that the sight could not be restored.

NUMBER OF TEACHERS NOW AT FREDERICKSBURG REACHES NEARLY 250—Manual Training.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
FREDERICKSBURG, VA., July 17.—The Summer Normal Institute in session here is one of the most successful in the State. The attendance has now reached about 240, and is still increasing. The student teachers are held at work the daily sessions beginning at 8:30 A. M., with intermission for lunch at 1 o'clock, and studies are resumed at 2:30, continuing until quarter before 5. The faculty is strong and the instruction of a high order. A class in advance work of manual training has been formed. The teachers have organized a literary club among themselves, and will give entertainments from time to time while the Institute lasts.

Councilman E. W. Mills has purchased of Irons and Perry two houses and four lots on Clay Street, in the northern section of the city.

BLINDGROOM FALLS FROM TRAIN IS BADLY HURT

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
BIRCHKNEAL, VA., July 17.—Will Eubank was seriously injured by a Norfolk and Western train here to-day.

The southbound local was moving rapidly and the young man, in an attempt to board it, fell and in so doing his head struck the end of a tie, causing an ugly wound. His hand was also badly injured, as his right hand was almost mangled. He is a resident of Halifax county, and has been married only three weeks. The train was delayed some time.

Mr. Cure Appointed.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
BRISTOL, VA., July 17.—John W. Cure has been appointed by Vice-President John B. Newton to succeed Jacob Bowley, resigned, as assistant general manager of the Virginia Iron, Coal and Coke Company, and the Virginia and Southwestern Railway Company, with headquarters here. Mr. Cure has been joint treasurer of the two companies for five years.

Bird Robinson Resigns.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
BRISTOL, VA., July 17.—Bird M. Robinson, the New York railway magnate, has resigned the presidency of the Norfolk, Jacksonville and Kansas City Railway and other new railway properties in the South. His resignation is due to his decision to devote his energies to the development of valuable mineral and coal properties which he owns individually in the Southern States.

EXCEEDINGLY INTERESTING FIGHT BETWEEN LASSITER AND DOYLE

MR. CHARLES T. LASSITER.

BIRTHDAY PARTY AT "CASTALIA"

Young People Gather to Do
Honor to Master Carroll
Boocock.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
KEESWICK, VA., July 17.—Never was a prettier or brighter scene witnessed here than on the lawn at "Castalia" Monday afternoon, when old and young were gathered to do honor to Master Carroll Boocock on his birthday.

No trouble had been spared to make the lawn picturesque and every amusement provided for the enjoyment of the forty youngsters. Perhaps the most novel and by far the most enjoyable to the children were the two large hay stacks made in the middle of the lawn; such joy and laughter as these caused! Then there were rocking horses and swings and games, and last of all, a "lemon tree," filled with prize packages, made in the shape of a lemon, one for each child. At sunset the children were seated at a long table, decorated with flags, and given a delightful supper, ending with birthday cake and ice cream. Soon good-bys were said, and the youngsters were driven home, having had the time of their young lives. The youngest member of the party was Master Charles Elliott Horne, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Horne. He is just five weeks old, and even he seemed to enjoy the good times of others. After the youngsters left the grown-ups had a delightful time playing croquet and quiet. After the games an elaborate supper was served on the lawn. As the shades of evening deepened the trees were aglow with Japanese lanterns, and fireworks were sent off, much to the enjoyment of all. Delightful music was rendered and greatly enjoyed. Every hour was filled with some new pleasure for the guests, and all left with regret that "all things have an end." Some of those present were: The Little Misses Bloom, Misses Money, Misses Lewis, Master Bernard, and Misses Macon and great-grandson, Monroe Von Mayhoff, Master William Money, Misses Harriett Macon and Sampson, Mrs. Macon, Mrs. and Miss Shackelford, Mrs. Lewis, Miss Page, Mr. and Mrs. Longfield, Rev.
